Considerable inconvenience has been caused during the last fortnight to dealers As a POMADE, it is not a grease but acting in arms, ammunition, gunpowder, &c., by a Proclamation, issued on the lat instant by H. E. the Governor, which prohibited for six months the export of these articles, or their carriage coastwise within the Colony. By a Gazette extraordinary immed this afternoon, the Proclamation referred to is revoked; and we feel sure that much annoyance and trouble will thereby cease. It was becoming doubtful whether the gun-462 powder for the East Point, noon-gun would hold out, and as difficulties were raised over De The publication of thu issue commenced a new supply, things looked dark. Several Coasting steamers had the greatest trouble to obtain ammunition for their own use. and the amount of correspondence wasted was something enormous. All this, be it noted, because a few martial Borneo braves had defied the Police in an out-of-the-way corner of the British Protectorate. We note that our learned Queen's Council and the Governor of the place had gone up to suppress the rising; and now we are glad to note that the foolish Proplamation above referred to which so closely affected this Coluny, has been revoked.

The fraud had been very successfully accomplished, and the fair intruder visited calmly the curiosities of the cloisters, which were shown and explained by a lay brother. But habit becomes second nature, and nature is a terrible habit. All at once the lady in the dress coat called out. 'Pardon me, brother, but where has my husband gone? The poor monk was at first quite stupefied at hearing a sweet voice come from behind the stiff white collar, and looked terror-stricken upon the hypocritical overcoat and the fallacious trousers. Then some servants came up, carrying an old armchair, into which they put the intruder and carried herout of the monastery gate.

The firm of Jardine. Matheson, and Co., of which Sir Robert is the head, was founded by his uncles, and is among the largest in the world. The young man who last week attained his majoity may be said to be prospectively the wealthiest commoner in Scotland. Being an only child; he will not only succeed to Sir Robert's broad acres in Dumfriesshire. Roxburghshire, and Perthshire, but to the large fortune which is comprised in the great mercantile firm which trades between England and China. The coming of age rejoicings were on a scale of great magnificence, and Sir Robert dispensed his hospitalities in the most princely fashion, the celebrations having, it is said, cost about £10,000.
